

Preserving Clan Bonds and Passing on the Legacy

The 9th World Yee Convention in Hong Kong

The 9th World Yee Convention 2026 · Hosted by the Hong Kong Yue Clansmen Association

The opening banquet of the 9th World Yee Convention was held at the Gordon Wu Hall of the B P International Hotel in Hong Kong. More than 500 clan members and guests from around the world gathered. Delegations came from the United States, Canada, Malaysia, Thailand, Singapore, Macao, Taiwan, Indonesia, and mainland China, including Shaoguan, Kaiping, Taishan and Xinhui. They came together to strengthen clan ties, exchange ideas and promote development, while honouring the legacy and culture of Lord Yee Zhongxiang (余忠襄公).

The banquet ceremony was hosted by Yu Haiying (余海鷹), Secretary-General of the Kaiping Feng Cai Tang Cultural Research Association; Simon Yu (余世民), Treasurer of the Hong Kong Yue Clansmen Association; and teachers Song Zipeng (宋子鵬) and Luo Jiaying (駱嘉穎) of Hong Kong Elegantia College. Before the ceremony, guests were invited to take their seats and told that event photographs could be downloaded by scanning the QR code on the menu. The ceremony began with a lion dance leading the distinguished guests onto the stage amid enthusiastic applause.

The convention welcomed Johnson Yee (余健倫), founding president of the World Yee Family Association, president of the Hong Kong Yue Clansmen Association and chairman of the Hong Kong Five Tong Association; and Alan Yu (余仲元), president of the 9th World Yee Family Association and chairman of the Hong Kong Yue Clansmen Association. Vice-presidents and representatives from the United States, Malaysia, Canada, Thailand, Singapore, Macao and Taiwan, along with local guests from Kaiping and Taishan and leaders of friendly clan organizations, also attended.

The lion dance opened the festivities, with three lively lions offering auspicious wishes and setting an energetic tone. Several clan leaders then delivered remarks, including Alan Yu, grand elder Kenneth Yee (余文博) of the Yee Fung Toy Family Association Headquarters, USA, and Fook Biu Yu (余福標) of the Thailand Yu Clansmen Association.

The speakers reviewed the achievements of past conventions and encouraged clan members worldwide to remain connected, honour their ancestors and carry forward the spirit of “Fung Choi.” Group photographs followed.

During the banquet, a specially produced video looked back on the first eight World Yee Conventions. Students from Hong Kong Elegantia College presented two musical performances featuring viola, flute, violin, pipa and guzheng. Their performance of the "Celebration Overture" showcased their talents and highlighted cultural inheritance and the nurturing of younger generations.

A toast and commemorative-gift exchange followed. Led by Johnson Yee and Alan Yu, clan representatives raised their glasses to peace, prosperity for Hong Kong and good health. Gifts were presented to representatives of Yee Fung Toy halls, clan associations and local guests, symbolizing bonds shared by Yee families worldwide.

The highlight of the evening was the handover of the convention flag and seal. Alan Yu, president of the 9th World Yee Family Association, formally transferred them to Boon Kwee Ee (余文貴), incoming president of the 10th World Yee Convention and president of the Singapore Yee Clan Association. Boon Kwee Ee addressed the gathering and invited clan members worldwide to meet in Singapore at the next convention and continue strengthening their ties.

The evening drew to a close in a warm and joyful atmosphere. Guided by the principles of honouring ancestral virtues and fostering fellowship, the World Yee Convention has long served as an important platform for connection, exchange and ancestral heritage among Yee clan members worldwide. The successful handover marked the continuation of its legacy. Participants expressed their commitment to carrying forward the spirit of Yee Jing (余靖), supporting one another and strengthening international clan fellowship.
