

Day 1 - Recap of the 9th World Yee Convention Gathering

A Memorable Gala in Hong Kong

As early winter settles in and northern China is already wrapped in crisp, chilly air, Hong Kong remains bathed in gentle breezes and warm sunlight. When the city lights come on at dusk, the unique glamour of the Pearl of the Orient unfolds in full splendor against the night sky over Victoria Harbour.

At the BP International Hotel, located at 88 Austin Road, Tsim Sha Tsui, a warm and bustling atmosphere filled the lobby from 4 p.m. Dedicated staff members were already on hand, greeting clansmen who had traveled from afar with warm smiles, assisting with registration, and presenting each guest with an exclusive commemorative gift. During breaks, Yee clan members from around the world, dressed in their finest attire, stopped to take photos in the elegantly decorated lobby, turning long-awaited reunions and cross-continental journeys into precious memories.

At 6 p.m., everyone moved to the Gordon Wu Banquet Hall on the second floor, where the conference welcome dinner officially began. Founding Chairman Johnson Yee Jianlun, Convention Chairman Alan Yu Zhongyuan, and other clan leaders took the stage in turn, recounting the shared ancestral origins of the Yee clan and outlining a vision for the global Yee community. Over clinking cups, guests sat together reminiscing, with familiar local dialects filling the room. On stage, clansmen took turns showcasing their singing talent, and the karaoke melodies mingled with peals of laughter, wrapping the entire evening in a warm, harmonious atmosphere.

This was a grand clan gathering that bridged thousands of miles. We share the same roots and bloodline, bound by a kinship thicker than water. Clansmen traveled great distances to gather in Hong Kong, not only to trace our origins and pay tribute to our ancestors, but also to strengthen ties between clans across regions, drawing the hearts of Yee people scattered around the globe even closer together.

We extend our most sincere gratitude to the Hong Kong Yee Clan Association. Your thoughtful, meticulous planning and dedication gave every guest a warm and unforgettable night in Hong Kong.
