Notes:

1. Participation in this one-day tour is optional. However, as coach seating is limited and meal reservations are required, guests who have not registered in advance may experience inconvenience. We kindly ask for your understanding.

2. Registration:

Clan members who wish to join the Hong Kong one-day tour on November 14 should register through the leaders of their respective local Yee associations, branch halls, or chapters.

Registration information should include each participant's Chinese and English name as shown on their passport, date of birth, gender, and other required details, as listed on the registration form.

The registration deadline is September 30, 2026. Thank you.

3. Friendly reminder: Clan members participating in World Yu activities are advised to purchase comprehensive personal travel insurance before departure.
